

There Are Lots of Job Seekers Out There. Let's Find the Right One for You.

Find candidates who share your philosophy of care, ensuring your patients and staff are in good hands.

Why Hire an Associate with ADA Practice Transitions?

Better Pricing

Pay a one-time flat fee of $4,500 when you hire an associate. Plus you only pay after contracts are signed.

Confidential and Secure

No personally identifiable information is exchanged until all parties agree to move forward with the interview process.

You Maintain Control

No exclusivity agreements. We're here to educate and guide you with full transparency.

Backed by the ADA

We're a service provided by the ADA, meaning we're built to support dentists like you first and foremost.

Your online profile makes your practice visible to hundreds of job seekers, and your ADA Advisor will curate only the most qualified associates that align with your preferences and philosophy of care, ensuring you find the right dentist to join your practice.

Real Customers, Real Results:

"I am so happy that this program has enabled me to find the right person to join my practice!"

"I feel like they get who we are and who would be a good match for us, on levels even deeper than dentistry."
