

You've Built A Legacy With Your Practice. We Find You Buyers To Protect It

Find buyers who share your philosophy of care, ensuring your patients and staff remain in good hands.

Why Sell Your Practice with ADA Practice Transitions?

Better Pricing

Save thousands on your practice sale compared to traditional brokers. Plus you only pay after contracts are signed.

Confidential and Secure

No personally identifiable information is exchanged until all parties agree to move forward with the interview process.

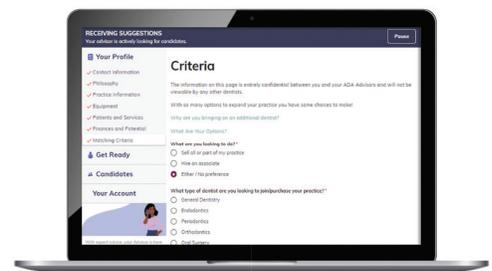

You Maintain Control

No exclusivity agreements. We're here to educate and guide you with full transparency.

Backed by the ADA

We're a service provided by the ADA, meaning we're built to support dentists like you first and foremost.

Your online profile makes your practice visible to hundreds of buyers, and your ADA Advisor will curate only the most qualified buyers that align with your preferences and philosophy of care, ensuring you find the right dentist to continue your legacy.

Real Customers, Real Results:

"It's easier to find the right candidate for the best price with the least problems."

"I feel like they get who we are and who would be a good match for us, on levels even deeper than dentistry."

Save thousands on your sale and find the best dentist to buy your practice.
