Dealing with Difficult Patients or How to Turn Lemons into Lemonade

Sponsored by:
Kentucky Dental Meeting

Please note: This workshop is offered as information only and not as financial, accounting or legal advice.

Seminar attendees may make photocopies of these pages for internal office use only. These forms may not be copied for distribution to others.
Dealing with Difficult Patients or How to Turn Lemons into Lemonade

Presented by
Lois J. Banta

Banta Consulting, Inc.
33010 E Pink Hill Rd
Grain Valley, MO 64029
816/847-2055 Office
816/847-5962 Fax
email – lois@bantaconsulting.com
website – www.bantaconsulting.com

Key Topics:
- Identifying the difficult patient
- Written protocols and systems
- Re-training the difficult patient
- Knowing when and how to release a patient
- Team involvement
- Hidden traits of a difficult patient...fear, anxiety, etc.
Identifying the difficult patient:

1. Body language

2. What they say…what they are really saying

3. What they know and…don’t know

4. The whiner and complainer

5. The blameful patient…passive/aggressive

6. The angry patient
Establishing written protocols and systems:

1. The new patient experience

2. The pre treatment interview – permission to treat

3. The exit interview

4. Financial systems and collections

5. Statement phone calls

6. Post treatment phone calls
Re-training the difficult patient:

1. On the phone

2. When you receive a letter

3. Successful environments

4. When establishing change

5. Old dogs…new tricks

6. Proactive vs. reactive
Knowing how and when to release a patient:

1. Tolerance level

2. Behaviors and attitudes

3. Breaking the rules

4. Is it the patient or the office?

5. Firing a patient…what’s legal…what’s not

6. Documentation
Team involvement:

1. Training

2. Cross Training

3. Clear guidelines

4. Roles in the practice

5. Accepting responsibility

6. Hidden opportunities
Hidden traits of the difficult patient:

1. The fearful patient

2. The assertive patient

3. The anxious patient

4. Parents and children

5. The double edged sword

6. The sneak attack
SAMPLE - FIRE THE PATIENT LETTER

Dear _____________
Date___________________

Our practice was built on the philosophy that the patient is our most important concern. You have missed several appointments in our office in the last 6 months. Therefore, we feel that we can no longer meet your treatment needs. We are requesting that you seek your dental treatment at another office. We will treat your emergency needs for the next 30 days. Effective __________ at _______ AM/PM ______________ dental office will cease to be your dentist.

Please let us know where we may send your dental records. For your convenience, listed below is the phone number to the local dental society to direct you to a new dentist of your choosing: __________

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to serve you.

Sincerely,

Dr. John Doe